

Did you know MeL is available 24-hours a day to all Michigan residents, at no charge?

MeL opens the door to millions of articles, documents, images, videos, books, tests and tutorials and ebooks - many of which simply aren't available on the open Web.

WHY USE MeL?

The Internet and its popular search engines have made information available to everyone in the world at the click of a mouse. Unfortunately, not all information on the Internet is reliable or accurate. MeL provides resources from experts and authorities on health, education and business so you don't have to wonder about authenticity.

HOW DO I USE MeL?

MeL Internet resources are free to everyone worldwide, but items within the MeL Databases section are just for Michigan residents! From your home, office or library, start at <http://mel.org>

WHAT WILL I FIND IN MeL?

MeL contains many types of information and in many convenient formats:

- MeL Pathfinders: Dozens of subject searches from agriculture and education to science and the environment;
- MeL Databases: A collection of full-text articles from magazines, journals and newspapers, and digital e-books;
- MeL Catalog (MeLCat): Search for and request lending materials from a growing list of participating Michigan libraries;
- MeL Multisearch: A streamlined approach to researching multiple databases; and
- MeL Michigana: A growing collection of digitized historical resources from throughout Michigan and the Archives of Michigan image collections.

POPULAR TOPICS IN MeL

Tutorials and practice exams for standardized tests like the ACT, SAT and GED; online skills-improvement courses; and many career exams such as those for civil service.

Health information about medical conditions, diseases, treatments and alternative medicine via articles, encyclopedias, videos and pamphlets.

Business resources can help you find a job, improve your business or workplace, or find the statistics and support you need to retool for a new career or start a brand new business.

KIDS' RESOURCES

MeL isn't just for grownups! On the contrary, there are sections devoted to meeting and anticipating the learning needs of all Michigan students.

Let the Michigan eLibrary give you the information edge. Visit <http://mel.org> today and see what you've been missing!

EDUCATION

MeL has many resources of interest and tremendous value to students and educators alike.

Students will enjoy grade-level-appropriate search interfaces, encyclopedia articles, videos and images that can be used in papers and in the classroom, and a variety of interactive practice tests on subjects like vocabulary, math and grammar.

Is your teenager nervous about an upcoming ACT exam? MeL offers tutorials and testing to put your college-bound kids at ease with the state's standardized exam.

Educators can expand their teaching toolboxes with Michigan Educator's Resources: lesson plans, curriculum information, grade-level-appropriate lessons and materials tied to state standards, research articles, historical photos and papers and more.

College students can use many of MeL's resources to prepare research papers and support projects at the college and university level. For the many students holding down full-time jobs, MeL's 24-hour availability is a welcome convenience.

<http://mel.org>

Want to know how MeL can meet your information needs?

My mother was just diagnosed with non-Hodgkin's lymphoma. What is it and what will her treatment be like?

I was just laid off from my job of 15 years. How can I find another career avenue that will get me into a good, new job fast?

It's 8 p.m. and our 5th-grader just told us he has a report on wolverines due - tomorrow! What can we do?

This term, I have to write a paper on the social pressures faced by stay-at-home mothers. Where can I find credible, timely articles and studies for my research?

I need to keep up with scientific advancements for my business. How can I see the latest issue of Popular Science?

My cell phone service keeps dropping calls. Which cell phone provider has the most dependable service?

I'd like to plan a vacation in Michigan. What is there to see and where should I visit?

I need to create a lesson plan on butterflies that will really connect with my first-graders. Where can I find age-appropriate games, photos and facts?

I'd like to start a business. How do I find information on market trends and writing a business plan?

My father has been diagnosed with arthritis. Are there studies that show whether herbal treatments work?

I have a job interview next week. How can I research the company's past performance and organizational culture?

Library of Michigan

702 West Kalamazoo St.

Lansing, MI 48909

Phone (517) 373-1580

Fax (517) 373-5700

librarian@michigan.gov

Library of Michigan

Department of History,
Arts and Libraries

Funded in part with a grant from

The Library of Michigan is part of the Department of History, Arts and Libraries. Dedicated to enriching quality of life and strengthening the economy by providing access to information, preserving and promoting Michigan's heritage and fostering cultural creativity, the department also includes the Mackinac Island State Park Commission, the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs, the Michigan Film Office and the Michigan Historical Center.

For more information about this publication contact Public Services at 517-373-1300, TDD: 517-373-1592 or the Michigan Relay Center: 1-800-649-3777 or email librarian@michigan.gov

In accordance with Michigan Law and ADA requirements, an alternate format of this printed material may be obtained by contacting 517-373-5614 for more information.

07026 02/07

Not printed with state funds

Get the information edge with MeL,

Michigan's
anytime, anywhere library.

<http://mel.org>

