Navigating to Subject-Specific Databases

- Go to the White Library homepage: www.arbor.edu/whitelibrary
- Click on “Search”:

  ![Search Menu]

- A menu will appear. On that menu, click on the “Articles” link.
- Next, you will see a set of links that represent the different disciplines taught at SAU; the subject-specific databases are grouped according to area of study. Choose your area of study from that list by clicking on one of them.

  ![Find Articles]

  Not sure where to look for research articles? Start by choosing one of the subjects below.

  - Art
  - Business
  - Communication, Advertising, & Public Relations
  - Cross Cultural
  - Education
  - English
  - History, Government, & Political Science
  - Music
  - Nursing and Health
  - Psychology, Counseling, and Social Work
  - Science, Math, and Computer Science
  - Sociology, Criminal Justice, and Military Science
  - Theology, Religion, and Philosophy
For this example, “Nursing and Health” was clicked. A screenshot of a partial list of databases is shown; any subject you choose will produce a list that looks similar to this.

- Finally, choose the database that you would like to search by clicking on that database’s title. Sign in when prompted and begin your search!
